DVV Findings	Response of HEI
A. HEI advanced claim of students who advance from HEI's undergraduate programs to its various Master degree program. From DVV's perspective, this could be interpreted as an internal transfer within HEI departments. This metric serves as a measure enabling HEI to evaluate the effectiveness of its educational content and training in facilitating students' placement in improved positions, be it in the workforce or academia. DVV is infused with skepticism regarding the transition from undergraduate to Master's programs within its own institution and thus has requested HEI to retract its assertion of such occurrences. ;;	A. In order to clarify the skepticism raised regarding the transition from undergraduate to Master's programs within own institution, HEI has provided the documents like Tution fees receipt/ Hall tickets/ Mark sheets/ Provisional/ Degree certificates of the students of Master's program as the proof.
