

ANTI-RAGGING COMMITTEE

ANTI-RAGGING

'Ragging' a social menace, as such has no place in academic environment of the Institute and concerted efforts are required to be in the place to prevent its occurrence at any point of time. Hence the need of 'anti-ragging policy' to be adopted by the institute. Ragging is criminal offence and lowers the standards of education. The 'anti-ragging policy' adopted by the institute take care of preventive, procedural and punitive aspects of ragging based on the guidelines provided by honorable supreme court of India, recommendations of the Raghavan committee, instructions/guidelines issued by the Ministry of HRD (Govt. of India).

ANTI-RAGGING POLICY

This policy encourages socialization of students to the academic environment of the Institute, Simultaneously discourage and preventing any negative acts on parts of senior students, which goes against the basic purpose of socio-academic integration. The 'anti-ragging policy' adopted by the institute therefore is aimed at:

- a) Creation, development and nurturing a conducive, socio-academic environment within the student populations.
- b) Generating and maintain high level of confidence within new entrants and their parents/guardians to perceive that fresh entrants to the institute are welcome and provided support, rather than being harassed and intimidated.
- c) Keeping on place an integrated system to discourage and prevent any negative acts like 'ragging' by the seniors, which disrupts socio-academic integration of new entrants.
- d) Prescribing deterrent measures for any violation of the "anti-ragging policy" by way of disciplinary measures.

PROCEDURAL AND PUNITIVE ASPECTS OF "RAGGING"

First Information Person(FIP) – first information person would be nominated by the institute at beginning of each academic year. The FIP would provide first instance intervention in case of any complaint of "ragging". FIP will be responsible for taking steps to ensure that cases of "ragging" within the institute are brought to the notice of the Coordinator ARC as soon as possible. FIP is empowered to deal with informal complaints of "ragging".

Ragging Reporting Procedure

- (a) If any individual believes that he or she has been subjected to 'ragging' or has knowledge of any such incident, such person (or FIP, who may have assisted the complainants or those, who have otherwise observed / known about "ragging") shall have option to file a complaint with the Coordinator ARC. This may be done in writing or orally. Written complaint is preferable.
- (b) FIP or member/s of the ARC will also be available to discuss any concerns exhibited by any student or a group of students, about ragging.

(c)All formal/Informal complaints of “ragging” may be made to the FIP within the constituent unit or directly to Coordinator ARC as stated above.

Punishment for ‘Ragging’

Based on the report of enquiry submitted by the ARC, the Coordinator ARC will recommend to the competent authority any of the punishment/(s) listed below or any other kind of punishment, which she/he may consider to be appropriate.

1. Cancellation of admission
2. Suspension from attending classes
3. Withholding /withdrawing scholarship/fellowship and other benefits.
4. Debarring from appearing in any test/examination or other evaluation process
5. Withholding results.
6. Suspension/expulsion from the hostel.
7. Expulsion from the institution and consequent debarring from admission to any other institution.
8. Fine with public apology.
9. Filing FIR with the local police.

INSTRUCTION TO FRESHERS

During the Induction /Orientation Programme, the convener and members of the Anti-Ragging Committee along were introduced to new students to familiarize them with the team and also asked to approach them in case of any distress. The principal of the college also urges the students to stay away from the evil of ragging.
