Implementation of Food Safety and Standards Act, 2006 in the Institution

1. Compliance with Food Safety Regulations

Our institution strictly adheres to the Food Safety and Standards Act, 2006 (FSSA, 2006) by ensuring that all food establishments within the campus, including the cafeteria, hostel mess, and vending services, comply with food safety norms.

2. FSSAI Registration and Licensing

All food vendors operating within the institution have obtained the necessary Food Safety and Standards Authority of India (FSSAI) registration/license to ensure compliance with hygiene and quality standards.

3. Regular Food Safety Audits and Inspections

The institution conducts periodic inspections and audits of the food handling areas, storage facilities, and kitchen hygiene practices. These audits are performed by designated committees in collaboration with certified food safety officers and external auditors when required.

4. Hygiene and Sanitation Protocols

- All food handlers undergo training on hygiene, safe food handling, and waste management.
- Implementation of standard operating procedures (SOPs) for food storage, preparation, and distribution.
- Mandatory use of gloves, head covers, and aprons for food handlers.
- Clean drinking water facilities are maintained and monitored regularly.

5. Awareness and Training Programs

The institution organizes awareness sessions, workshops, and training programs for students, staff, and vendors on food safety, personal hygiene, and safe food handling practices.

6. Waste Management and Sustainability

- Implementation of proper food waste disposal systems in compliance with environmental standards.
- Promotion of sustainable food practices such as minimal food wastage and eco-friendly packaging.
